SPECULATION MAY BE MANIA WITH HIM

Brothers of Lewis F. Whitin Want Court to Put a Check on Him to Save Valuable Property.

On the allegation that their brother, Lewis Frederick Whitin, has been indulging in speculation and wasting his fortune, Edward and Arthur Whitin, dry goods manufacturers, of Whiteville, Mass., have asked for a sheriff's jury to pass upon his mental condition.

By order of Justice DuBois the evidence will be heard before Bela D. Eisner as commissioner.

Lewis Frederick Whitin has been in the dry-goods business for thirty-two years as a member of the firm of Whitin & Collins, at No. 112 Worth street. His partner is Clarence Lyman Collins, known as "Prince Charlie." Mr. Whitin resides with his wife, Lucy, and his daughter Louise at No. 9 West Fifty-sixth street. His only other child, Mrs. Gladys Whitin Peters, resides with her husband in Sussex, England.

Several days ago, on a certificate issued by Dr. Charles L. Dana, Mr. Whitin was removed to Sanford Hall Sanatorium, Flushing.

In their petition for the inquiry Mr. Whitin's brothers say he has been indulging in extravagance and wild speculation but do not give details. They value his remaining property at $25,000, and say he enjoys extensive sources of income aside from his dry goods business.

His partner, Mr. Collins, presented an affidavit saying Mr. Whitin's annual income from his business in Worth street was $15,000.
